

I do business with several banks in the Consumer Bankers Association, and I am completely opposed to the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law.